SPRINGFIELD YOUTH CLUB

In the UK, it's common to see groups of teenagers walking around the streets having nothing to do. This is because some areas don't have much for young people to do without spending a lot of money. However, in Hackney, in London, UK, there is a fantastic place for young people to go to. The Springfield Youth Club provides a safe place off the streets for young people to spend time with their friends.

Springfield Youth Club offers young people a wide range of activities to do from playing sports like football and ping pong to swimming, biking, making art, cooking and even going away on trips.

As well as having lots of fun, going to Springfield Youth Club is an educational experience. The staff work with young people to influence and teach them important life skills. Young people learn about decision making, taking responsibility and developing their social skills.

Isn't it great that young people in Hackney have such an amazing place to go to?
